

So, you are thinking of becoming a Board member: What now??

Being a good member is more than showing up at a Board meeting. It requires a strong commitment to the organization, innovative and forward thinking, a willingness to assume fiduciary responsibility, and strong character.

Let me help you make your difference in being an excellent board member,
Together we will:

1. Identify the characteristics of good board member
2. Outline the roles and responsibilities of a board member
3. Differentiate the roles of a board member and the Executive Director
4. Developing a positive relationship with fellow board members and with the Executive Director
5. Serving on Board committees
6. Dealing with difficult Board members
