

Building the Best Board

Annual elections are just around the corner and you are scrambling to fill slots. Sometimes this last-minute lack of planning results in choosing less-than-ideal board replacements. The most effective boards– those whose members are deeply committed to the organization’s mission, who bring expertise in key areas and who represent diverse points of view – evolve over time through careful planning.

This session will take you through Board Source’s Nine Steps to Build a Better Board.

- Identify the Needs of the Board – What skills, connections etc. do you look for?
- How to Cultivate Potential New Board Members
- The Most Effective Ways to Recruit Prospects
- How to Orient, Involve, Educate and Evaluate board members
- Discuss the Most Successful Rotation Schedules for Nonprofits
